Councilman Bruce King Report of 12 July 2012 City Council Meeting:

- 1) Finances
- 2) City Wide Cleanup-
Thanks was expressed to Mr. Doug McKay
Residents like City Cleanup
Potential to authorize City Works to decline or pick up some items for a fee, maybe raise garbage fee 4%, possibly have dumpsters for two weeks in alleys during fall and spring
- 3) Cancellation of two public hearings
- 4) Water report met standards
- 5) East Parkway Corridor meeting- commissioners are considering a 5-10 yr wait although Mr. Jim Mullin is urging property to be set aside now, Commissioner Kimber Ricks approved the parkway to the canal and invited Sugar City to weigh in with comments or not as they saw fit, recognized that the commissioners might want to step aside and let Sugar City take the lead on the part of the parkway that affects us
- 6) Councilman Drake reported on 3rd South and Digger Dr. project- H and K Contractors, ribbon curbing
- 7) Sewer System- instrument to measure flow not working properly- Sugar asked by City of Rexburg to oversee meter at K-Mart and Moody Creek-we would be obligated to pay for repairs
- 8) Sign code would be sent to Attorney Forsberg
- 9) Pioneer Breakfast- 28 July, 2012 7-10 am, with Stones providing financial assistance in return for being allowed to advertise
- 10) City Council members received and accepted an invitation to participate in the St. Anthony Pioneer Day Parade, 28 July, 2012, 10 am.

Comprehensive Plan

Numerous Comprehensive Plan updates for 2011 and 2012 were suggested by the commissioners at the request of City Council.

Several ideas were presented for City improvements in the 2012-2013 year:

- Improve surface of tennis courts
- Identify the WWII POW Camp with a marker or some other remembrance of the site
- Update or review lighting ordinance

Assignments:

-Chairman Hawkes asked commissioners to re-familiarize themselves with 2011 Nine Man Committee information and come prepared with ideas and names to make Sugar City Impact Area zones consistent with current Rexburg Impact Area zones

Next Meeting to be held:

16 August, 2012- Sugar City Council Chambers

8:50- Meeting was adjourned
